

Abrigo becomes Premier Partner with American Bankers Association, expanding industry collaboration

AUSTIN, TX, November 12, 2024 – Abrigo, a leading provider of software and advisory services designed to help banks manage risk and drive growth, is proud to announce its new status as a Premier Partner with the American Bankers Association (ABA). This collaboration will further strengthen Abrigo’s commitment to serving its 2,400+ financial institution clients by sharing industry best practices and driving innovation in risk management and banking growth strategies.

The American Bankers Association, which represents banks of all sizes and their two million employees, is a trusted resource for bank leaders across the country looking to solve operational and risk management challenges. Through this partnership, Abrigo and the ABA will work together to provide expert insights and tools that empower financial institutions to thrive in an ever-evolving regulatory environment.

“At Abrigo, our mission is to enable financial institutions to make bigger impacts in their communities,” said Jay Blandford, CEO of Abrigo. “Becoming a Premier Partner with the ABA will allow us to further that goal by creating more opportunities to share best practices, enhance performance, and ensure the continued success of our clients.”

By collaborating with the ABA, Abrigo will offer its industry-leading solutions and expertise to a broader audience, providing the insights necessary for financial institutions to manage risks and foster growth. This partnership underscores Abrigo’s dedication to equipping banks with the tools they need to navigate a dynamic economic landscape.

“ABA’s commitment to supporting banks of all sizes aligns perfectly with Abrigo’s mission of empowering financial institutions to succeed,” said Russell Davis, ABA’s executive vice president, Member Experience. “We are excited about the opportunities this partnership will create for our member banks.”
